March 27, 2012

Dear UCR Campus Community,

On behalf of the search committee and Chancellor White, I am pleased to announce that four candidates have accepted our invitation to visit campus for a series of interviews for the position of Vice Chancellor for Research. Each candidate will be giving a Vision Seminar, followed by a discussion, in which they will outline their vision for the position and their thoughts on UCR's research and creative activity enterprise.

We encourage your participation in the seminar and, subsequently, your comments. The candidates will be visiting UCR on the following dates:

Candidate #1: April 3rd and 4th
Candidate #2: April 9th and 10th
Candidate #3: April 11th and 12th
Candidate #4: April 16th and 17th

The Vision Seminars will be held on the first day of each candidate visit from 2:00pm – 4:00pm in the Genomics Building, Auditorium 1102A.

Curriculum vitae for each candidate will be made available to the campus community prior to each visit. Individuals wishing to submit confidential comments regarding the candidates may do so by writing directly to Jessica Darin (Jessica.darin@ucr.edu), Executive Assistant to the Chancellor. To be considered, comments on these four candidates are due by the end of the day on Wednesday, April 18, 2012, as the Chancellor will be moving quickly on this recruitment.

More information on this recruitment, please visit: http://chancellor.ucr.edu/exec_searches/exec_searches.html.

Sincerely,

G. Richard Olds, Dean
Chair, Search Committee for the Vice Chancellor for Research